

Matt Stahl – Private Wealth Manager/Partner

Direct: (612) 940-0908

Matt lives with his wife Katie, their son Owen, and their Vizsla dog Molly, in South Minneapolis. Matt attended the University of Iowa and received a B.S. Degree in Industrial Engineering and a minor in Business Management in 2003.

After graduation, he accepted a position as a design and sales engineer at Vessel Systems in Dubuque, Iowa. Matt advanced to a management position in a matter of months. This introduced him to the world of small business and relationship management, both of which became his passion. He values the personal connection between him and his clients, and loves the opportunity to apply creative financial strategies to help them reach their objectives.

In his free time, Matt enjoys spending time with his family. He's active in all sports, especially distance running, and loves spending time outdoors. He also volunteers in the community including participating in Junior Achievement and serving as president of his area chamber of commerce.
