

Meg Pendleton – Client Services Manager & Office Manager

Meg grew up in Green Bay, Wisconsin and has been a resident of Orono, Minnesota since 1990. She earned a B.A. in Journalism from the University of Wisconsin Eau Claire and worked in advertising for the Star Tribune in Minneapolis following graduation.

When Meg started a family, she took time off from working outside the home to raise her three children, but continued to fuel her professional goals by producing newsletters and doing administrative work for small businesses on a freelance basis. As her children grew, she re-entered the workforce bringing her small business administrative skills and marketing experience to Fiat Wealth Management. She volunteers with Interfaith Outreach and Community Partners in Wayzata, MN and her local chamber of commerce.

On the weekends, Meg enjoys her book club, has a passion for gardening and continues to practice Yoga. She loves spending time with her family and black lab.

